

NOBODY KNOWS YOU WHEN YOU'RE DOWN AND OUT

Written by Jimmie Cox (1923)

4/4/ Intro:

|C            E7            |A7            |Dm            A7            |Dm
|F            F#dim            |C            A7            |D7            |G7

|C            E7            |A7            |Dm            A7            | Dm
Once I lived the life of a millionaire Spent all my money, didn't have a care
|F            F#dim            |C            A7            |D7            |G7
Took all my friends out for a mighty good time Bought bootleg liquor, champagne and wine
|C            E7            |A7            |Dm            A7            |Dm
... Then I began to fall so low Lost all my good friends, I had nowhere to go
|F            F#dim            |C            A7            |D7            |G7
If I get my hands on a dollar again I'll hang on to it till that old eagle grins 'Cause

|C            E7            |A7            |Dm            A7            |Dm
No-----body knows you When you're down and out
|F            F#dim            |C            A7            |D7            |G7
In your pocket, not one penny And as for friends, you don't have any
|C            E7            |A7            |Dm            A7            |Dm
When you get back up on your feet again Everybody wants to be your long-lost friend
|F            F#dim            |C            A7            |D7            |G7
I said it's strange, without any doubt Nobody knows you when you're down and out

SOLO (repeat 2x)

||:C            E7            |A7            |Dm            A7            |Dm
